Facilities Update

LBCCS Campus Needs meeting, 2/23
 Al Frangione and the consultant presented the results from meetings and surveys conducted with Staff/PTC/SSA in October 2025.
 The consultant used this feedback to develop the Educational Specification that will be provided to potential architects and aid in selecting the architect and contractor for the project.

Treasurer's Report - Christy Witz and Jenny Calabrese

Year-to-date: Income and expenditures are within budget. The school recently ordered a new chromebook cart. Funds from the PTC technology budget will be used to purchase the cart.

PTC encourages families to minimize cash payments whenever possible. For best practice, field trips and other payments should be made by check or through the webstore (www.myschoolbucks.com)

Director or Teacher Representative Update
	Charter renewal: Mrs. Newton presented an update to the LUSD Board of Trustees on February 5. The LUSD Board will vote on LBCS' charter petition at their March 12 meeting.
LBCS Events Update - Courtney Gross and Kasey Branting
	Recap: Fun Night Out for Boys - 2/20. Huge thank you to event coordinators Shannon Brooks and Jessica Sorenson! This was a great event that families enjoyed. Book Exchange - 3/6. Thank you Robin Rollman for coordinating. Upcoming: LBCS Talent Show: The LBCS Talent Show will take place on March 26. This is a favorite event among students and a wonderful opportunity for them to showcase their talents. Thank you Kit Giambastiani and McLaughlin Studios. Students are working hard on their performances. Mother's Day Store is coming up in early May. Start collecting your candles, scarves, jewelry, etc. to donate for the Mother Day Store. Open House: May 28. Join PTC for a barbecue in the amphitheater before visiting classrooms. 8th grade promotion: June 1st Field day: June 2nd
Assemblies Update - Danielle Duffett
	IDAC Cultural Dance Performance – What a success! Thank you to Danielle Duffett for bringing this new program to LBCS. PTC is requesting donations from the school community to defray the costs of this new program. If you enjoyed the performance, please consider contributing at www.myschoolbucks.com. Art Ark: The Crocker Art Museum visited LBCS last month. All grade levels had the opportunity to rotate through the interactive exhibit. Thank you to Mrs. Clark for organizing this experience. Free family passes were available to students. Families are encouraged to visit the Crocker Art Museum in downtown Sacramento. A Touch of Understanding: A Touch of Understanding took place February 18 for 5th and 6th graders, with students participating in 1–1.5 hour sessions throughout the school day. This experiential program promotes empathy, inclusion, and awareness by giving students hands-on opportunities to learn about disabilities and differences through guided activities and discussion.

Extreme Science Assembly: April 9th; two sessions for PYP and MYP. The host has national recognition and was on America’s Got Talent. This will be an event for both PYP and MYP students.

Auction Update - Courtney Renick

Auction:
 The LBCS Auction will be held on April 18, 2026, at The Blue Goose with a Kentucky Derby-themed evening. Families interested in getting involved are encouraged to contact Melissa Smith. For updates, follow @auctionlbc on Instagram.

Tickets & Sponsorships: lbcsgivesmart.com

- Only two family tables remain available
- Individual ticket sales are $75 per person, increasing to $100 per person after March 14.

Donations of auction items are greatly appreciated. If you or someone you know can donate experiences such as events, vacation homes, season tickets, or other items, please contact Melissa Smith with details.

The auction community is trying to put together a ‘Napa experience’, and are looking for a parent/family with a Napa wine membership. They have reached out, and they are more inclined to donate to those with memberships.

Room Parents – Auction Baskets:
 Class auction baskets are due to the office by March 20. Please communicate with the auction committee if you are requesting donations for your basket to help avoid duplication.

Volunteers are always needed. Find ways to help here:
